Subject: Facebook call to action

Importance: High

So the left is rallying troops on facebook to oppose religious release time.

Please help me draft a great call to action post in favor of it. Here is what I have so far.

CALL TO ACTION

On Sept 12 the Hilliard School Board will be voting on a policy, Religious Release time, that will allow students to leave school for religious study. There is already an existing state law, Ohio Revised Code 3313.6022 released time courses in religious instruction. Lifewise Academy is asking for the board of education to allow this in Hilliard. It is important to note that;

-parents must give written consent

-transportation to and from is the responsibility of Lifewise Academy

-NO PUBLIC FUNDS are used and NO SCHOOL PERSONNEL are involved in providing the religious instruction

-students will not miss any core classes during this time.

70 school districts in Ohio are already utilizing the religious release time with great success and little disruption to the school.
